Management and Leadership

INTRODUCTION

In this highly-interactive retreat, Top and Middle-level Management will:

State Organizational Deliverables as clear and unambiguous Outcomes.

Focus on Timelines and Deliverables

Ensure that these Outcomes are mutually agreed to by Collaborating Departments.

Eliminate Functional Silos and entrench Teamwork.

Establish a Sequence of Deliverables that creates cumulative Power for Operational Implementation.

Design Conflicts and Resistance out of daily Operations – allowing top officials to be strategic and creative rather than focusing on avoidable challenges.

Embed Reviews and Updates logically and automatically.

Quickly flag individual and departmental non-performers who can be retrained, reassigned or replaced in a timely manner that does not disrupt Operations.

Ensure Capacity Building needed to guarantee Performance Delivery is always put in place in a timely manner.

Prioritize Resource Allocation and diminish or eliminate Office Politics....and lots more!

TAKEAWAYS

This program will enable you to:

- Create an organization where work is accomplished because needed steps have been predetermined
- Solve problems as they arise and develop cumulative power to achieve key outcomes
- Focus staff energy on deliverables and timelines because responsibilities are clear
- Lead an organization that gets things done

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Senior and Middle level Management whose participation is foundational to achieving the organizations strategic objectives
- Managers with responsibility for core products, services, or mission-critical processes
- Subject matter experts on Strategy Development and Tactical Implementation
- Entrepreneurs in any industry, especially in new and emerging fields seeking exponential growth

The customised nature of the training made it practical and specific to our organisation. We were able to achieve deep-dive and solve real-life organisational problems that would not have been possible otherwise. Every one left with renewed vigour and a set of solutions to immediately implement.
